Stewardship 365

“Christ has no body now on earth but yours, no hands but yours, no feet but yours”
~St. Teresa of Avila

This year we are continuing to expand and implement our 365 Stewardship campaign formulated after the "long ago" series entitled "Lifestyle Stewardship" by Thomas Are. We have updated the language and condensed the idea a bit, but it returns us to the four Pillars of our discipleship journeys, that understands stewardship as a lifestyle as opposed to one event. They are Passion (Why and how we worship God), Perception (How we understand our place and mission in the world as we invite reconciliation), Provision (How, where and why we serve), and Promise (How we understand and respond to the gifts we have been entrusted with). In the coming weeks and months, we will highlight each of the areas listed above with opportunities to strengthen our community as we pursue together this journey of discipleship in community...

QUARTER	FOCUS	POTENTIAL OPPORTUNITIES
January - March	Passion	Worship Opportunities of Christmas...Epiphany of the Lord...Ash Wednesday...Lenten Gatherings...Easter
April - June	Perception	How we intersect with our neighbors in the World - Forsyth Jail & Prison Ministry Worship opportunities...Collection of hygiene items.
July - September	Provision	Blessing Bags/Rescue Mission...Partner with elementary schools...Partner with Sunny Side Ministry.
October - December	Promise	Time, Talent & Treasure Commitments... Christmas Lovefeast Offering

...During each quarter, we will have one scheduled event that the congregation or a large group (e.g. Women's Fellowship, a Sunday School class) can participate in, as well as suggested activities for smaller groups or individuals to engage in that support the focus area for that quarter.
