12. COMMEMORATION OF THE MARTYRDOM OF JOHN HUS

ST. THEODOLPH (151 G)

God is our strong salvation, no enemy we fear;
he hears our supplication, dispelling all our care;
if he, our head and master, defend us from above,
what pain or what disaster can part us from his love?

For Hus the fearless martyr we give you thanks and praise, whose bright and pure example still shines in these our days.
May we with dedication so preach and live your love that all may hear your witness and strive for heav'n above.

Almighty God, Redeemer and Sustainer, we offer you thanks and praise for the holy lives of all your servants — the prophets, apostles, and martyrs — who have shone forth as lights in the world and sacrificed their lives in testimony of their faith.

We thank you for calling your servant John Hus to be an instrument of reformation and renewal in your church, and for keeping him faithful even unto a martyr's death.

Even as we rejoice in the fellowship of the saints, we confess, Lord, that as your disciples we have often dishonored the holy name we bear.

We ask your forgiveness for the times when we have failed to labor for your kingdom; when we have not followed your admonition to seek first the kingdom of God; when we have hidden our light from the world; when we, as the salt of the earth, have lost our strength. Have mercy on us, and restore unto us the joy of faithful discipleship. Amen.

The Lord, your Redeemer, has said: With everlasting love I will have compassion on you. Therefore serve the Lord with gladness; witness to his goodness and mercy; and preach Jesus Christ as Lord, with yourselves as servants for Jesus' sake.

ST. THEODULPH (151 G)

We fully are persuaded and joyfully declare we're never left unaided, our Father hears our prayer;
his comforts never fail us, he stands at our right hand;
when tempests fierce assail us, they're calm at his command.

Easton Elementary School

Although school has just been dismissed for the year, it is not too early for us to begin collecting school items for the start of the 2026-2027 year. School supplies for the students have to be delivered by the beginning of August, so we must begin our collections now.

Last year we began ordering many of the needs supplies through Amazon, which worked out so well, as the items were already packed in boxes. This helped us with delivery. We certainly would appreciate any school supplies you personally would like to bring in, but we also realize how heavy and awkward all the bags can be to carry in.

If you wish to bring items in, please do, but you can also make monetary donation and we will order supplies in bulk from Amazon. Should you wish to make a monetary donation, please make checks payable to: Women's Fellowship and indicate on the memo line it is for Easton. You may give your donation to me or to Kathy Adams or mail checks directly to Kathy at P.O. Box 1445, Clemmons, NC 27012.

We will again be purchasing supplies for 450 - 500 students who depend on our donations to enable their learning. Your continued support throughout the many years are so appreciated and are a true blessing to the students and teachers.
