Plan to join us for our last Summer of Service opportunity as we celebrate the 2026 Moravian Day of Service on Sunday, September 13th. We'll head to the Fellowship Hall after worship to form the assembly lines to pack lunches for the WS Rescue Mission—we have 125 to pack and we hope to see you there! Once the bagged lunches are all packed, youth in grades 6-12 should plan to stay for a simple lunch and an outing to continue the Day of Service theme! Youth should plan to bring a change of clothes as we deliver the lunches to the WS Rescue Mission and then participate in packing Emergency Hygiene Kits for Church World Service with other youth from around Forsyth County (an event sponsored by Sunnyside Ministry). Parents should plan to pick up youth from the church at 4:30pm.

This session's theme will be Living in the Light. The stories of John the Baptist, Bartimaeus, Zacchaeus, Mary Magdalene, and Paul show how living in the Light turns our lives around and helps us be lights for others too.
